

Phyllis Mattina Gigl

December 10, 2020

Phyllis Mattina Gigl, 70, passed into Heaven on December 10, 2020 after a brief hospital stay. She was married to the late David Joseph Gigl. They were blessed with two children: Candice Rae Gigl, and David J. Gigl Jr. (Melissa); six grandchildren, William, Stephen, Jane (Matt), John, Jesse and Madie. Phyllis is also survived by one sister Cassandra Mattina Griswold.

Phyllis was retired Civil Service. She loved music, dancing with David, her beloved family, pets and meeting new friends.

A family graveside service will be held December 18, 2020 at the Biloxi National Cemetery, Biloxi, MS.

The family prefers donations to be made to the Humane Society of South Mississippi.

Bradford-O'Keefe Funeral Home is honored to serve the Gigl family.

“ Such fond memories of my cousin.
Eating German chocolate cake at the five and dime.
Making root beer from a bottle of flavoring.
Eating snowballs together.
Watching the landing on the moon together.
Fond memories of spending time together during summer vacations.
